The Arlea Attack.

The Arica Attacked by a Chilian force, 6,000 strong, about the 4th or 5th instant. Before the fight began the Chilian commander summoned the Peruvian garrison to surronde, and received fur reply "wa will reast until our hast cartridge is exhaustd." The demand was renewed on the following day, with the abservation that General Baguedano was indifferent to an energetic defense of the city, and with a desire to avoid the shedding of boot begged the Peruvian officers to accept the conditions. The reply was the same as before. On the 8th all communication between Arica and other points in Peru was cut off, and it was believed in Lima that Arica had fallen. It was understood that it would be blown up before allowing her to fall into the hands of the energy.
